Has decision already been taken?

TOWN COUNCILLORS CONCERNED THAT PLAN FOR UNITARY AUTHORITIES HAS BEEN GIVEN GREEN LIGHT

DORSET County Council's reorganisation consultation on plans to reduce the number of local authorities in the county from nine to two has come under fire from Bridport town councillors, who have blasted it as rushed and un-democratic.

The county council are asking for residents' views on forming two unitary authorities in Dorset – there are currently three different options, varying in size, on the table – or retaining all nine councils as they are.

It is thought that a two unitary council model would save £108million over the first six years, but the one-off transition costs to replace the existing nine councils with two unitary bodies would be around £25million.

Due to the fact that county councillors have already resolved that they do not wish next May's polls to take place, as they would be spending £800,000 on an election to an organisation that would not exist two years later, Bridport town councillors have questioned if a decision on the reorganisation has already been made.

The county council would have to submit a request for the election to be deferred to central government by November 30th if this was the case.

Cllr Kelvin Clayton said: "If they go ahead and make that request, they are making it before the nine councils agree on their approach and before

STELLA Waterhouse lives in Broadwindsor and is an educator and autism awareness expert. She first came across autism when she met three very different children all of whom shared the same diagnosis of autism.

After training as a teacher in curative education, she worked with children with a variety of disabilities before moving to work with 'emotionally disturbed' adolescent boys at the Cotswold Community Gloucestershire. She returned to her roots in the mid 1980s as a senior care officer at a residential home for adults with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD), where she became deputy principal.

Stella began researching and writing books about autism in the late 1980s and published her first book in 1990 and a second in 200. Over the years she has written a number of books and articles on the topic from a series of concise informative books for parents and teachers.

She is now a full time carer and is passionate about finding ways to enhance the lives of people with ASD and those with similar sensory differences. She is aiming to organise some sensory-friendly weekends next year for families with children who have autism, Asperger's and global development delay.

She is also in the process of completing the second book in her four-part series 'Autism Decoded'.

● TELL us a bit more about the sensory friendly weekends...

Over the last year have been saddened to read several posts from parents on Facebook whose children have not been invited to parties so put a brief post up suggesting that it might be nice to organize something specifically for those children.

That post got such a positive response that I felt I ought to go ahead and organise a weekend away for children whose sensory problems make it difficult for them to cope in very crowded or noisy situations.

Am still just at the beginning of the process but as there seem to be several different age groups involved so am aiming to offer at least three weekends in different places – for example holiday camps and somewhere that offers a quieter retreat so that parents can choose the place that is most appropriate for their child.

Am also hoping to get someone to sponsor a pamper session etc. for the mums plus something for the dads as well.

Families interested in getting involved in the Sensory Friendly Weekends can find the details at the website www.sensoryfriendlybreaks.co.uk

● WHAT is it with autism and ASD that really interest you, that spurred you to write books on the subject?

I really enjoy working with both children and adults with ASD and was initially intrigued by the challenge of communicating with people who are generally thought to be non-communicative.

During the course of my work I realised that anxiety was a major factor too. It didn't feature in the textbooks at that time and so I decided to write about it and, after investigating the causes found that most people with ASD have sensory differences that make daily life extremely difficult for them.

That led me to write a series of short concise books; helping parents understand just what underlies their child's behaviour and offering practical advice and solutions to help enrich the child's life.

● WHAT has been the most challenging thing you have faced in your career?

It's a bit embarrassing as it's linked to a "foot in mouth" moment that happened just after starting a new job working in a community for adults with autism. Before leaving for a trip out I was told never to say "no" to Charley. On arriving at the venue he got very agitated and unexpectedly began to scream and hit himself and of course the first word that flew out of my mouth was "no".

Embarrassing - and extremely challenging - to get a very agitated - well built - young man back into the minibus while keeping him from hurting himself.

● WHAT would be the one most important piece of advice you could give to people who interact with children and adults who have ASD?

Difficult (challenging) behaviours always have a reason - many being linked to anxiety or to the fact that the child is oversensitive to touch and sound and has visual problems, so that many situations - like shopping in a crowded place - seem overwhelming. If you can identify the reasons for the behaviour you can often alleviate the difficulties, making the child's life (and yours) much easier.

● WHAT do you like to do in your spare time?

As a full time carer my time is limited but I enjoy walking, browsing in local antique shops - or just going down to the sea.

I also enjoy joining in some of the things that go on in the village - and the local area - whenever possible.

● WHAT do you like most about the local area?

Broadwindsor is one of the friendliest places I've ever lived in and we felt at home almost immediately.

It also has some great amenities, church, pub, the craft centre (with a wheelchair friendly restaurant), plus the added bonus of a very well-stocked community shop which is a godsend and the thriving Comrades Hall - home to the post office, Moviola and many social clubs and events.

New plans for huge solar panel site submitted

A NEW application has been submitted for a massive solar panel site near Rampisham.

The decision has meant that a public inquiry into the original preferred site, where the BBC World Service transmitters used to be located, has now been postponed. It was due to have got underway earlier this month.

Opposition to the original site was led by Dorset Wildlife Trust and other groups, including Dorset Campaign to Protect Rural England (CPRE).

Their opposition focused on unusual grasses found on the site – a Site of Special Scientific Interest (SSSI) – which had created a rare environment for a range of insects and other plants.

Opponents argued that a less environmentally

by Trevor Bevins
trevorbevins@gmail.com

damaging site, on the opposite side of the road, should have been selected instead.

Now British Solar Renewables have submitted a planning application for that site to West Dorset District Council after discussions with Natural England.

Their original application, for a 24MW solar farm had been approved in January 2015 – despite a public opposition campaign.

Dorset Wildlife Trust chief executive Simon Cripps, said he was pleased that the company now appeared to be taking the protection of what he described as a 'nationally important' wildlife site seriously.

"If they are able to find a suitable solution to their needs that does not damage the site, then we will be the first to applaud their new approach," he said.

The new application is smaller than the original application with a block of panels capable of creating 5MW of power, which could be developed separately from a second block, capable of a 12.3MW output.

District planning officers will now go through the process of assessing the new site, which will also be open for public comments. It is thought unlikely that the new site will be considered for at least six months. If it fails, the public inquiry into the original site could be reinstated, although that may also lead to a lengthy delay.

Has decision on councils' future already been made?

they decide upon what business scheme they are going to apply to government for.

"Further, if that then is approved and elections are cancelled, that is before the legislation gets debated and approved by government.

"If all that goes ahead it would suggest to me that the decision has already been made and the whole consultation is a pure farce."

Cllr Ros Kayes said: "I am getting the feeling that some people feel this consultation has been inadequate, it has been rushed, that it could actually be to the democratic deficit (when decision-making procedures lack democracy) if the county council continues for a year when the proposals are not actually finalised.

"My understanding was that you can openly defer an election for a year and if the arrangements (for the council reorganisation) are not going to be finalised for two years, what are you deferring the election for?"

There were also concerns about what would happen to town and parish councils if two unitary authorities were adopted as there is little information on what powers they would have in the consultation document.

Cllr Ros Kayes added: "When this was debated at a county council meeting in March, one of the things that we all agreed, right across the board, was that towns and parishes needed to have their powers enhanced in order for this to work properly.

"We need to get them to stipulate which powers would be coming to town councils and more importantly what money would be following those powers."

Cllr Sarah Williams said: "I think very much the development of power to town and parish councils and how town and parish councils can work together is very important, I feel that we need lots of conversations with Dorset Association of Parish and Town Councils (DAPTC) and other local government and find out more how it has effected other councils.

"I know certainly in Cornwall since the unitary authority has started, less and less money has come down to town councils and Cornwall have lost almost all their TICs.

"We have got to look after not only the people who live here but the people who visit and spend money is this economy to help us."

Cllr Dave Rickard blamed the government for the funding cuts the county has suffered, causing them to make changes – such as this reorganisation – in order to save money.

He said: "I am also concerned about this consultation... people are being asked to vote for something which hasn't been fully explained.

"It is about referendum style manipulating questions trying to get a response that somebody else has already decided and not doing a proper democratic process.

"I am quite offended and I think it is disingenuous of the language 'if councils do nothing' (used as one of the options to continue with nine councils). Councils have been doing an awful lot for a very long time, the only reason they are not doing things now is because this government has slashed the funding to the point where it will destroy local government. I think this is disgraceful and I think we should make a very big protest about that.

"Nobody wants to cut healthcare, nobody wants to cut waste provisions, libraries and all these things – nobody wants to cut them. Everybody wants those services, and the only people who are causing this problem is not an inefficient council – we can sort that out – the only people who are causing this problem is this government. Services is what government is about."

The consultation is open until October 25th and more information can be found at <https://news.dorsetforyou.gov.uk/reshapingyourcouncils>

Thirty more affordable homes could be on the way

BRIDPORT Cohousing could provide up to 30 new affordable homes in the town, thanks to a housing association grant.

The group, which is a Community Land Trust, gained planning permission earlier this year for 'phase one' of its plan to build 34 new homes for a cohousing neighbourhood on four-and-a-half acres of a seven acre site on land west of Bridport Hospital.

But now they have plans to submit a 'phase two' application to develop the remaining two and a half acres of land and provide 17 homes for rent and up to 13 homes for self build or self finish.

Alan Heeks and Monica King, both of Bridport Cohousing, attended a Bridport Town Council meeting earlier this month to announce their plans, which Mr Heeks called "unmissable" and explained that they needed to move quickly.

He said: "We had intended to get that settled in and wait for a couple of years before considering the other two and a half acres, however, Hastoe our housing association, have a very substantial grant which they can apply to the whole field if we can get moving quickly.

"The benefit of moving quickly means a substantial increase in the number of affordable homes that we can actually deliver. This is really quite a rare chance. This government is about to remove grants from housing associations - this is really an unmissable opportunity to get a substantial grant."

In addition to providing up to 30 homes, some of the funding will enable an extra six of the cohousing homes on phase one to be for affordable rent through Hastoe, instead of being for sale at 80- per cent of open market value.

While phase one land is specifically for a cohousing neighbourhood, it is proposed that leases on homes on the phase two land will not be formal cohousing but will support many of the 'green' aspects of cohousing life, such as recycling and reducing car use and energy consumption as part of daily life.

Car ownership would be limited to one per household, unless verifiable off-road parking arrangements are in place.

Residents on phase two who were interested in cohousing - a community of homes with a common home and shared space - will be welcome to apply to become active members of the group that manages the whole site, whether self-builders or tenants.

Ms King said: "These homes might be the last affordable rent homes built by a housing association with government grant funding and we would love to see them coming to Bridport. This is truly a once in a generation opportunity."

Town councillors were supportive of the plans. To find out more about Bridport Cohousing visit www.bridportcohousing.org.uk

MEMBERS and supporters of the Living Tree cancer support group in Bridport, pictured, enjoyed a 'Go Stripy' fundraising afternoon tea last week. The initiative is from Wessex Cancer Trust who is encouraging people to wear stripy clothes for a day in September - childhood cancer awareness month - and raise vital funds for local children and teenagers affected by cancer. The group donned stripy clothing and shared stripy decorated cakes and donated money to the charity. Wessex Cancer Trust runs a number of support centres which offer practical and emotional support to those with cancer.

Top prizes on offer in arts centre fundraiser

A FUNDRAISING grand raffle for Bridport Arts Centre will be drawn at the end of the centre's AGM, which takes place on Wednesday, October 5th from 6pm.

Many people have supported the South Street venue's raffle, including some of the Broadchurch cast such as David Bradley, who won a BAFTA for his role as the elderly sea cadet leader Jack Marshall, and Ash Hunter, who starred in the BBC's The Secret Agent, and is a new actor in series three.

The idea of having a raffle to help with the fundraising for the arts centre improvements

■ SUPPORT: Actor David Bradley

was that of local resident Margie Barbour.

She said: "The tickets have been offered for sale on the forecourt while the building works were going on.

"A rota of the many supporters of the arts centre was drawn up and over the three months they took turns to explain about the works taking place inside the centre and to sell the raffle tickets.

"The fundraising committee members, Judy Davis and Teresa McCann took on many sessions, as well as board members Barry Bates and Rosie Russell, who proved to be an ace at selling tickets, her enthusiasm for the arts made her irresistible!"

Local businesses have generously offered prizes including the Bull Hotel, The George in South Street, Snooks hat shop, Smith and Smith outfitters and The Book Shop on South Street.

The main prize is £100 and Chrissie Wareham Booth of Beau Hairdressing in West Street has given £50 as a second prize.

All the many supporters who sold tickets will be at the draw and able to see the new café, box office and bar that their efforts have helped pay for.

India's on her way to Ecuador

■ Local student India Morgan is continuing to raise as much money as possible for her expedition to Ecuador to help communities there. She is pictured at the recent fundraising quiz she hosted

A SIR John Colfox Academy student is over halfway through her mission to raise as much money as possible for a once in a lifetime expedition to Ecuador, where she will be working on important projects to improve living standards for local people.

India Morgan, aged 15 and from Walditch, is determined to raise funds for the Camps International trip which will help support rural communities, reforestation projects, marine protection and building schools.

Almost 40 per cent of everything raised will go directly towards projects in Ecuador.

Over the past 12 months, India has held fundraising events and successfully secured a weekend job to help raise money towards the trip.

She recently held a quiz evening at Walditch Village Hall and raised more than £300 towards her trip.

She said: "It is really important to support those less fortunate than you.

"The quiz night was a sell-out and everyone was so generous. I have been asked to organise another one in the new year as it was such fun."

County town walking group visits Bridport

THE Dorchester Strollers walking group travelled to Bridport for one of their special walks outside the county town.

From the bus station the route took them along the river to Palmers Brewery and then they crossed the road to follow the waterway through the fields to East Street.

There they looked at the information board, pictured above right, in the gardens and followed Sea Road until turning into Long Lane and to St Andrews Road.

The keener members of the party then went up Coneygar Road and took the new path to Coneygar Hill, meeting those wanting a flatter route outside Mountfield House.

Programmes for the Strollers walks, held twice a week, can be obtained from Dorchester Tourist Information Centre, by ringing 01305 263759 or looking on www.walkingforhealth.org.uk

All ages are welcome, but children must be accompanied by an adult.

Organisers aim for the pace of the walk to be whatever suits you best, with leaders at the front and rear of the group.

Pavarotti's hat up for grabs in charity auction

WELDMAR Hospicecare Trust is auctioning a number of items on Thursday, October 6th at 10am in an auction hosted by Busby at their Bridport salerooms.

All the items sold by Weldmar have been donated by the charity's supporters and include jewellery, watches, vintage clothing, art, vintage Barbie dolls and much more.

There is also one very special item in the sale – a signed hat, pictured, donated to Weldmar many years ago by Luciano Pavarotti, the Italian operatic tenor who died in 2007.

Hugo Busby, chief auctioneer, said: "We are really happy to be supporting this local charity for all the support it provides to people at a time of great need."

Weldmar is especially close to my family as my late father-in-law, Major John Greener, was closely involved in the conception of Joseph Weld Hospice, Weldmar's inpatient unit in Dorchester."

Jon Pantan, Weldmar's business fundraising manager, said: "We are very grateful to everyone who has donated such wonderful items for this auction and to Busby for hosting it for us.

"It is only with the support of the local community and businesses that Weldmar staff are able to be here to provide our outstanding services to local people at a time when they need us most."

The auction at Busby's Bridport salerooms will begin at 10am and can be found at The Old Hemp Store, North Mills, Bridport.

For more information and access to the catalogue and to bid online, visit www.weld-hospice.org.uk/auction

Bentleg's first adventure sets sail

A CHILDREN'S author from Bridport has published a new book – 'Bentleg Badsmeller of Barnacle Bay'.

Bentleg is the lead character in Jilly Bentley's colourful and lively picture book. In this first story he's captured by arch enemy Snotwart Sniveller, but his faithful crew hatch a plot to rescue him from Whale Island.

Jilly now spends her time in Brittany, France, with her husband. Her background is in psychotherapy, working mainly with children and young people and specialising in play therapy.

The book was originally written when their children were small and has been revamped and illustrated more recently.

Jilly embarked on a tour of the UK this week, promoting the book at a variety of different outlets, which will culminate in a reading and a book signing session at the Pilot Boat Inn in Lyme Regis on Sunday, October 9th at 11am.

Everyone is welcome to attend and children are encouraged to dress up as a pirate or any sea themed character they like.

The book is currently available at The Bookshop on South Street, Bearkat Bistro in the Lyric Theatre, Soulshine Café in South Street, Redbrick Café in St Michael's Trading Estate and Fruits of the Earth, off West Street.

Alternatively visit www.bentlegbadsmeller.co.uk, follow @Bentleg1 on Twitter or search for Bentleg Badsmeller on Facebook and Instagram.

Winter opening times begin at recycling centre

BRIDPORT Household Recycling Centre (HRC) is about to move into its new winter opening hours.

From October 1st to March 31st, the Dorset HRCs will open at 10am and close at 4pm daily. They will be closed on Christmas Day, Boxing Day and New Year's Day.

As fewer residents use the county's 11 HRCs during the colder half of the year, the Dorset Waste Partnership reduce operational hours in order to save money for essential public services.

Further information of HRCs can be found at www.dorsetforyou.gov.uk/recycling-centres/household

Hat festival raises £2,000 for charities

by Lottie Welch

lottie@viewnews.co.uk

BRIDPORT Hat Festival raised £2,000 to be split between its two chosen charities – Brain Tumour Research and Brain Injury Rehabilitation Trust (BIRT).

Members of the committee presented the cheques at a special event at the Ropemakers pub last Wednesday (September 21st).

Brian Atkinson, chairman of the Bridport Hat Festival committee, thanked all those who helped in any way at this year's hat festival, including Bridport Lions, music organisers, volunteers, Bridport Town Council, Bridport Tourist Information Centre, sponsors, committee members, the Bull Hotel, Ropemakers and the Electric Palace.

He said: "I would like to thank all those who have helped once again to make this year's hat festival successful."

"Despite the rain later in the day, the good people of Bridport turned out and provided a great display of weird and innovative headgear."

"We managed to get the majority of our proceedings transacted with the mass photo and the fun prizes all awarded before the rain fell down."

"As you will gather there are a lot of people behind the scenes at the hat festival and no doubt I have neglected to mention some – I am sorry but you know who you are and please accept my thanks and apologies."

"We did not manage to raise as much money as last year, but under the circumstances I think that we have done very well and are able to donate £1,000 to each of the two charities."

Serena Dyer and Leigh Carrigan of BIRT received the cheque on behalf of the charity.

Serena said: "We are delighted to be supported by the Bridport Hat Festival this year and are overwhelmed by the generous donation of £1,000."

"The hat festival, as always, is an amazing event to be a part of and we always enjoy seeing the hats on display!"

"Donated money helps us to provide those extra facilities and activities that allow our service users to try something different and achieve something they didn't think possible at first – an invaluable rehabilitation experience."

"Thank you to Bridport Hat Festival!"

A representative from Brain Tumour Research was unable to attend the cheque presentation but Hugh Adams of the charity sent the committee a message.

He said: "The Bridport Hat Festival has been and will continue to be an important calendar date for Brain Tumour Research."

"Each year we have been hugely grateful to the committee for supporting our charity and helping us raise awareness of Wear A Hat Day (a fundraising day for the charity)."

"I have been visiting now for five, or is it six, years and really love the fun, optimism and can-do attitude the whole event personifies."

"Your ability to attract serious milliners, do it yourself locals and curious grockles is a credit to your imagination and planning skills. Thank you again and I really hope to be with you all in 2017."

The evening was also an opportunity to show supporters and committee members a new video of this year's hat festival.

Schools come together to explore Roman goddess

The four schools of the Minerva Learning Trust have come together to develop a modern day story of the Roman goddess Minerva, which will end with a celebration of dance, song, poetry, drama and visual arts in February next year

SCHOOLS in the Minerva Learning Trust (a group of local schools in West Dorset working in partnership) are intending to hold an annual celebration of the arts next year.

Preparation for the event, which will take place in February, is under way as pupils from all four schools – St Mary's Primary School, Bridport Primary School, Burton Bradstock Primary School and the Sir John Colfox Academy – come together to explore Minerva, the Roman goddess of wisdom and sponsor of arts, to develop a modern slant on the original story.

The planning began at a student writers workshop earlier this month at the Sir John Colfox Academy, led by trustee and former teacher David Powell.

The students shared their understanding of the goddess with each other before working together to develop a story that will form the background narrative to the celebration in February.

Some Sir John Colfox Academy sixth formers, who helped lead the workshop, are now completing the story and in early November the pupils will come together to shape the narrative into a performance that will include drama, dance, song, poetry and visual art.

Mr Powell said: "At a time when resourcing the arts is under pressure nationally, the MLT is demonstrating that we see the importance of all young people accessing and enjoying the arts and developing the creative skills that can enhance their wider learning."

Library hosts Fisherman's Arms day centre students' exhibition

USERS of the Fisherman's Arms Day Centre in Bridport are hosting their own art exhibition at Bridport Library.

The artwork, which is exhibited on the ground floor of the library, was created by students as part of an art course run by Workers' Educational Association (WEA) which runs adult education classes.

The course was designed to introduce learners to visual and tactile elements of art, including colour, pattern and texture, and to enable them to begin to explore the materials and processes used in making art, craft and design.

The course provides a range of opportunities for individuals to express their creativity.

Sue Bishop, of WEA, said: "The WEA is delighted to hold an exhibition at Bridport Library.

"We run adult education classes for all across the country and the creative courses at the Fisherman's Arms are part of our provision for students with learning difficulties.

"The students have worked hard all year under the guidance of tutor Angela Morray-Jones to produce some fantastic pieces of art. The experience of holding their own exhibition is all part of the learning experience.

"Parents and carers commented on the importance of courses like this to improve communication and confidence skills and give opportunities to socialise and learn while having fun.

"All of the students were very proud of their work and keen to talk about it."

All the students were also presented with certificates by Baylie Hart Clarida, area education manager for Dorset WEA, for completing the course. The exhibition started on September 23rd and will run for two weeks.

■ The new defibrillator in West Milton

Defibrillator installed in old West Milton phone box

A NEW defibrillator has been installed in the village phone box at West Milton after a successful fundraising campaigner by residents in Nettlecombe.

The defibrillator project was completed last year and, after a review of its suitability for the other local villages was carried out, it was agreed that West Milton would be best.

The Nettlecombe project was led by Tracey Brady at The Marquis of Lorne pub and it was decided that the fundraising would continue for West Milton.

The target was quickly reached and while the pub led the fundraising, numerous individual donations were made, along with contributions from Powerstock Parish Council, Powerstock Cider Festival, the big breakfast, a local company, a curry night, a grant of £670 from the Dorset County Council Partnership for Older People Programme and other donations.

The phone box in the middle of West Milton had been adopted by the parish council under the BT 'Adopt a Kiosk' scheme and it was agreed that it was a suitable place to locate the defibrillator after a clean up and repainting.

The installation was carried out by Peter George Electrical at a material only charge and BT has agreed to supply power to the box for the next seven years.

A training course was carried out by the South Western Ambulance Service, who take responsibility for service, maintenance and replacement of the unit.

Emergency meeting to save local branch of parent support charity

THE Bridport and Lyme Regis branch of the NCT, the parent support charity, has called an emergency meeting to urgently discuss how the branch and its services can be saved.

The group is calling for people to come along to Bridport Children's Centre on Thursday, September 29th to discuss how the branch can avoid closure.

Entirely run by volunteers, the group organises a wide range of activities, from popular pregnancy, baby and toddler groups to antenatal and first aid classes.

It also organises large scale nearly new sales four times a year to raise funds and provide a place for parents to pick up good quality baby bargains.

Following a number of volunteers standing down for personal reasons, the branch is lacking the people power to keep going and is heavily reliant on a small group of helpers.

Danielle Lanning, branch co-ordinator, said: "One of the things that our NCT group does brilliantly is to plug the gap in services in the local area for young families, for instance providing antenatal classes when NHS provision was cut, and organising specialist

lottie@viewnews.co.uk

groups such as 'Peas in a Pod', our monthly session for families with twins and multiples.

"We are really worried that without more people stepping in to help out, we will have to start reducing what we do and we may even have to wind-up altogether if we cannot get the volunteers. That means support that people rely on will disappear."

The branch receives no central funding and is dependent on its own fundraising and income generation.

It puts a lot of money into producing Small Talk, a comprehensive mini magazine that provides information and signposting for family support across Bridport and the surrounding areas. Producing the newsletter is one of the many areas where the branch needs help.

Danielle added: "We are a really friendly branch and have had the benefit over the years of some wonderful volunteers who have gone above and beyond to help us grow and develop what we do.

"But we are now in serious need of help from anyone in the local area to keep it going.

"You don't need to have young children to get involved – some of our roles are desk based and we never ask for more time than you can afford to give.

"We do really hope that people who have benefitted from the NCT, either recently or in the past, will come along to our meeting to offer some ideas and find out what they can do to help."

Branch president Ellen Simon said: "The NCT has been around in Bridport for over 30 years and hundreds, if not thousands, of families have had the benefit of its support.

"It would be terrible for us to lose this wonderful resource and for expectant families or those with babies and toddlers to lose access to information, support and friendship when they really need it. Please try to get involved."

The emergency meeting will be held on Thursday, September 29th from 7.30pm to 9.30pm in Bridport Children's Centre.

For more information email coordinator.Bridport@nct.org.uk or visit the Bridport NCT Facebook page.

The Bridport and Lyme Regis branch of the NCT is holding an emergency meeting to prevent the group from closing after volunteer numbers have dwindled. Pictured are volunteers at the recent 'Nearly New' sale

Accessible South West - Where to visit when mobility is limited...

by Kay Wiseman - Optimistic traveller and wordsmith

THE South West of England has so much to offer visitors. There has been a steady migration of retirees down to Devon over the years and owners of tourist destinations are very aware of the limitations that reduced mobility brings. A great deal of investment into accessibility now makes a day out for locals and their visitors really enjoyable.

The South West offers diversity, there really is something for everyone.

Bath is England's only UNESCO World Heritage city and is the home of the American Museum, the only museum of American decorative and folk art outside the United States. Situated on the edge of the city in Claverton House, the building is fully accessible via ramps and a lift. Manual wheelchairs are available on loan from Reception. Assistance dogs are welcome and disabled toilets are situated in the Gallery Shop and Coach House. Blue badge holders are able to park in front of the Main Building.

Travel South to Plymouth and look out across Plymouth Sound as Sir Francis Drake and other famous sea faring characters did before setting sail. Today the National Marine Aquarium succeeds in amazing visitors as they embark on a journey across the world's oceans. The Aquarium is accessible by ramps and lifts throughout. There is limited disabled parking on site so it is a first come, first served.

The very best of Britain's landscape and scenery are found in Devon's five Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Drewsteignton on Dartmoor is where the last castle in England was built. Castle Drogo (NT). There is Mobility parking in the main car park, an Accessible toilet at the visitor centre. Wheelchair access to the castle (one wheelchair available to borrow). Two rooms are wheelchair accessible (stairs to other floors) and there is a Volunteer operated buggy available from visitor centre to the castle. Discover the beautiful Lutyens-designed terraced garden which is partly accessible by gravel paths off of the main drive.

TIC's across the South West have an excellent range of literature categorising suitability of sites for those with limited mobility. Accessible Trails have tantalising names such as The Tarka Trail running between Meeth and Barnstaple, a haven for wildlife and outstanding views so vividly described in Henry Williamsen's 'Tarka the Otter'. Drakes Walk in Tavistock was purpose built by a special needs group and won 3rd prize in the Esso Community Footpath Awards 1994. Parking and toilets are available in Bedford car park.

For garden lovers RHS Garden Rosemoor near Great Torrington is a must. Eight manual wheelchairs at the garden entrance are available for 'on the day' use. Two Powered Mobility Vehicles are available for guests with limited mobility, free of charge, (subject to membership to the Countryside Mobility South West Scheme). Adapted unisex WCs are situated in the Visitor Centre and in Rosemoor House.

One companion is admitted free of charge per wheelchair user. Assistance dogs are welcome. A plan of the recommended route for those with limited mobility is being developed.

Exeter Ship Canal is a bird spotters paradise with flat and easy walking. Darts Farm near Topsham offers nature trails and you can hire binoculars from the farm shop where toilets for the disabled are situated.

Projects to pitch for funds at first 'Soup'

FOUR local projects have been selected to pitch to a live crowd-funding community dinner at Bridport's first ever 'Soup'.

Four community projects have four minutes to pitch their ideas in front of an audience who buy a bowl of soup and get a vote.

The audience can ask up to four questions of each project before dining and discussing which project to vote for.

The project receiving the most votes gets the takings from the door to invest in their plan, returning to a future Soup to report on how the funds have been spent.

Linda Hull, from Communities Living Sustainably, who has teamed up with Stir to Action to bring Soup to Bridport, said: "With 80 Soups happening regularly up and down the country helping to get community projects off the ground, we are delighted to be giving a platform to four brilliant local projects."

The projects lining up for the first Soup have been announced as, Punctknowle, Swyre and West Bexington community sharing group, Kitchen Collective, Refugee Solidarity West Dorset and Youth Representation Group.

Co-organiser Jonny Gordon-Farleigh from Stir to Action, said: "Bridport's very own River Cottage chef Andy Tyrell is donating his time to rustle up a seasonal squash, apple and chilli soup with ingredients generously sponsored by Fruits of the Earth, Bridget's Market and Leakers Bakery. Stir to Action will be match funding up to £250 too."

"With just a few seats left, book your seat today – it is going to be a great night!"

The event takes place on Thursday, September 29th from 7pm in the WI Hall, North Street.

To reserve seats search for Bridport Soup on Facebook or at www.eventbrite.co.uk

Locals learn how to save a life

■ BRIDPORT's mayor, Councillor Ros Kayes, is encouraging people to join St John Ambulance. She is pictured here with volunteer Graham Rendell at the Save a Life September event in Bridport

PEOPLE in Bridport were offered the chance to learn the skills to be the difference between a life lost and a life saved as St John Ambulance returned with its annual Save A Life September (SALS) first aid drive.

Local volunteers provided free first aid demonstrations, including CPR on dummies, at Bridport Town Hall earlier this month.

Clive James, national training officer at St John Ambulance, said: "The opportunity to learn first aid is something that everyone should take up. You never know when you might need to use it – either at home, in the street, at work or at school."

"Once again, this year our aim is to reach as many people as possible with our SALS demonstrations so that more people are equipped with the skills to save a life."

"Please help us to make sure that there are more people in the community as a result who understand how to be the difference between a life lost and a life saved."

The Bridport branch, who are marking 80 years of service this year, meet at the St John Ambulance hall in Rax Lane on Mondays, with badgers – aged seven to 10 – meeting from 5pm to 6pm, cadets – aged 10 to 18 – meeting from 6pm to 7.30pm and adults meeting from 7.30pm to 9.30pm, and Bridport mayor, councillor Ros Kayes, is urging people to join them.

She said: "We are so lucky to have an active St John Ambulance in Bridport but like all voluntary organisations, volunteers retire and they need new members."

"I would urge anybody who might think of learning valuable skills to come along and get trained up."

To find out more about the campaign, or for first aid advice, visit www.sja.org.uk/savealife

Rex Trevett Big Band

THE Rex Trevett Big Band, based in Bridport, will perform in Bucky Doo Square on Saturday, October 1st from 10am to 12noon.

The band raises money for local charities and everyone is encouraged to go along, hear them play and donate.

CAB help with Wessex Water

THE Bridport and District Citizens Advice Bureau (CAB) has a long-standing project which helps Wessex Water customers manage their water bills if they are having difficulties.

Now there is a further scheme that may be able to help reduce bills by 20 per cent.

CAB manager Rovarn Wickremasinghe said: "Wessex Water has introduced a new scheme to help pensioners with their water bills. You could be eligible for discount of 20 per cent off your water bill if you receive water and/or sewerage services from Wessex Water and if the adults in the household are receiving pension credit."

Those eligible can claim the discount by completing a short application form available from the CAB office in Bridport between 10am and 3pm, Monday to Friday, or at the CAB outreach centres in Lyme Regis and Beaminster. Call 01308 456594 to make an appointment.

Anyone who is having difficulties paying their bill or want to see if they are entitled to a reduction can also contact the CAB.

Cancer support group's community grant boost

THE Living Tree, a cancer support group based in Bridport, is the latest recipient of Bluebird

Care's Dorset Community Grant. The group were awarded £250 to help cover the cost of training a soul midwife to support cancer patients and their families lies through the end of life process. It will help with costs of putting an experienced care worker from the group on the course.

The Living Tree, which enables people to live well with and post-cancer through weekly meetings, workshops and activities, complementary and creative therapies, group and one-to-one support, was set up in 2012 by founders Jo Millar and Jo O'Farrell and supports residents throughout West Dorset.

Jo O'Farrell learnt of the grant after Pathways To Care, another Bridport based charity, received an award for their 'Good Neighbours' scheme last year.

She said: "We are very grateful to Bluebird Care for sharing our vision to be able to offer holistic and spiritual companionship to our members at the end of life."

Sherry Porter will be undertaking the soul midwife training for the Living Tree and will be able to offer this support to those in their own homes, hospitals, hospices or residential care in order to face death with dignity, peace and tranquillity.

She said: "I am so grateful to Bluebird Care for their generous grant, they along with many other benefactors have made this dream of becoming a soul midwife a reality for me."

Cat Pearce, care manager for Bluebird Care's Bridport and Dorchester offices, said: "We are delighted to be able to support the Living Tree through the provision of a community grant."

"It is clear to see how having a trained soul midwife in the local area will be invaluable both those at end of life and their families in terms of ensuring that their entire range of support needs are met."

"The existence and maintenance of such services is essential to Dorset's rural communities and we are pleased to have been able to contribute towards this."

Jo O'Farrell (left) of The Living Tree is presented with £250 by Cat Pearce (centre) care manager of Bluebird's Bridport and Dorchester offices, to help with the cost of training Sherry Porter (right) as a 'soul midwife' to help those through the end of life process

Dorset's healthcare heroes are honoured at awards ceremony

OUTSTANDING staff and volunteers, including two at Bridport Community Hospital, who go the extra mile to help patients have been honoured at a local healthcare 'Oscars' event.

The Dorset Healthcare 2016 Heroes Awards celebrated the efforts of workers in services and locations across the county who have made a real difference over the past year.

Held this year at the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy, the event showcased hard work carried out by staff throughout the trust, which provides a range of community and inpatient physical and mental health services.

Mairead Bailey, healthcare assistant at Bridport Community Hospital, received an award as she regularly helps out with last-minute cover on the wards – including Christmas Eve – and is always cheerful and has a fantastic way with patients.

Keith Fursman, who volunteers at Bridport Community Hospital, received an award for giving up his time to look after the hospital's flower beds and, over the years, has raised more than £3,000 to help plant the outside spaces with flowers.

An n Abraham, chair of Dorset Healthcare, said: "It was a real privilege to hear stories of staff who have gone above and beyond what is expected of them, to make sure people around Dorset receive the care and treatment they need."

"Everyone who was nominated deserves recognition. Staff at Dorset Healthcare work tremendously hard every day to help people in all sorts of situations. I wish we could give everyone an award."

The awards followed Dorset Healthcare's annual members meeting where trust governors, members, staff and other guests gathered to hear about the trust's work during 2015/16 and its plans to develop and improve services over the next 12 months.

The day also featured a special 'thank you' lunch for some of the many volunteers around Dorset who provide tireless support for the trust.

More home safety and falls prevention events

FROM September to March 2017, Dorset County Council's early help team and Dorset Partnership for Older People Programme (POPP) will be holding another series of home safety and falls prevention events.

The events are run in conjunction with Dorset and Wiltshire Fire and Rescue Service and have gone from strength to strength since they started in 2008.

On Wednesday, October 12th, the team will be at Bridport Town Hall from 9.30am to 12noon to give people an opportunity to receive information, advice and practical support from a range of organisations.

Each event will have a marketplace of partner agencies available from a range of local and national organisations such as Age Concern, Citizens Advice Bureau, Wayfinders and healthcare agencies.

There will be information available on local services and activities, accessing aids and adaptations, help at home, leisure pursuits, benefits checks and energy efficiency advice.

People attending will receive a range of giveaways, including free fitted slippers, on completion of the Safe and Independent Living (SAIL) form, and each event will give the opportunity to have a chat over a cup of tea or coffee.

Sue Warr, service manager for early help at Dorset County Council, said: "Every year, hundreds of people have trips, slips and falls in their own homes that could easily be prevented."

"We are organising a series of events that will provide people with a free pair of fitted slippers, information and advice on how to stay safe and avoid falls, as well as signposting and support from a range of local and national agencies."

Plans to improve dementia services in Dorset

A REVIEW to improve the quality of Dorset's dementia services is running over the coming weeks.

Local people are being asked what is good and what can be improved about NHS and local authority dementia services, including the NHS memory assessment service, memory support and advisory services and other support and care both within hospitals and the community.

Over the past few years, NHS Dorset Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) has done considerable work to improve dementia diagnosis rates, which rose from being one of the lowest in the country in 2011 at 26 per cent to diagnosing 62.2 per cent of the estimated prevalence of people living with dementia across Dorset by March 2016.

Dorset is considered to be one of the fastest improving areas in the country.

Dr Paul French, dementia lead at NHS Dorset CCG, said: "We have been working with local GPs to give them the tools to support their patients with dementia to live well and independently for as long as possible.

"We also recognise the needs of carers and the necessity to take into account their experiences and thoughts on improving dementia when carrying out the review.

"Now we want to work closely with our partners in the local authorities to improve dementia care across all areas."

"Around 13,638 people over 65 in Dorset have dementia.

"It affects a large proportion of our population and we want to hear what your experience of dementia services has been.

"Whether they are good, bad or ugly, your experiences are central to this review and to future proposals on how to improve them.

"Local people are best placed to tell us what we have got right and what we need to do better.

"We are encouraging everyone to get involved, whether you are a patient, a carer, a family member or a member of staff who works with people with dementia.

"Tell your neighbours and friends, or take surveys to local groups you attend.

"You can make a real difference to the future of dementia services in Dorset."

The review is open until November 30th and the survey is available at www.dorsetccg.nhs.uk/dementia and at GP practices, libraries and hospitals in the first week of October.

A public workshop to hear more about the review and share experiences will also be held at Bridport W1 Hall, North Street, on Wednesday, November 9th from 2pm to 3.30pm.

Anyone who is part of a dementia group or organisation is asked to contact Dorset CCG at involve@dorsetccg.nhs.uk or by calling 01202 541946 to talk about the project and getting involved.

£15,000 church roof appeal boost

ST MARY'S Church in Bridport have received £15,000 towards their roof appeal, after the plaster ceiling collapsed over the north aisle in November last year.

At the annual meeting of the Friends of St Mary's, chairman John Russell presented a cheque for £15,000 to the churchwardens. This was a grant towards the estimated £115,000 cost of repairing the roof.

With proceeds from a series of jazz concerts, a bell ringers' coffee morning, some donations and a bring and buy sale, this takes the roof appeal to £18,500.

At the meeting a new committee was formed and churchwarden John Cooke gave an illustrated talk to the Friends showing the roof damage in graphic detail. He explained that it had been necessary to close the north aisle due to safety concerns.

A raffle supported by local businesses, wine and a short programme of homespun entertainment ended the evening.

Mr Russell said that he was encouraged by the meeting and hoped that the new committee would carry forward his aim of involving more town people and businesses in preserving the medieval church building for the town.

FOR THE LOVE OF COFFEE

International Coffee Day is coming on 1st October! There are dozens of events and promotions happening at coffee spots around the world. How will you celebrate?

WHAT IS INTERNATIONAL COFFEE DAY?

ON 1 October 2016, the 77 Member States of the International Coffee Organization (ICO) and dozens of coffee associations from around the globe will come together to celebrate the second annual International Coffee Day.

International Coffee Day is a global celebration of coffee's journey from the farm to your local shop— an opportunity to honour the men and women who grow and harvest the coffee we love.

Last year, the ICO launched the first official celebration of International Coffee Day with a dedicated website featuring dozens of events from over 35 countries around the world. The ICO is once again calling on private companies, independent businesses, public associations, and coffee lovers around the world to organise an event or campaign for International Coffee Day on 1 October.

How will you celebrate?...

IDEAS FOR ACTIVITIES

Use your imagination and have fun creating events and activities dedicated to the world's favourite drink. Here are a few ideas to get you started on planning your event or campaign to run on 1 October, 2017:

- ★ Host a coffee cupping in your home, office, or local coffee shop.
- ★ Run a promotion or discount offer in your coffee shop.
- ★ Make a video about your love for coffee to upload to social media using the hashtag #InternationalCoffeeDay
- ★ Host a lecture with your local coffee expert.
- ★ Run an art competition with coffee as the theme and hold an exhibition to display all the entries (photos, poems, short stories, paintings, any medium)
- ★ Host a coffee workshop or masterclass – perhaps an introduction to brewing techniques or roasting.
- ★ Organise a visit to a coffee farm and/or washing station to get the general public interested in growing coffee.
- ★ Start a fundraising campaign to benefit development programmes in a coffee-growing region.
- ★ Have a screening of a coffee-related film.

Black Dog Tea Room

BLACK Dog Tea Room in Uplyme has been open for three years and is run by Sonia and Her partner Rod. The tea room is set in what was the restaurant of the pub and has a log burner to keep you warm in winter and a spacious garden for the summer, there is also a good sized car park.

They sell Puro Fair-trade coffee in all the normal guises – Americano, Latte, Cappuccino etcetera. As well as coffee they have an outstanding array of loose leaf tea, including fruit tea, green tea, white tea and black tea which can be drunk on site or bought in tins to take home to enjoy, or as a gift. Rod makes all the cakes, quiches, biscuits, scones and bread, and now with the weather turning cooler his warming soups - carrot and cumin, parsnip and rosemary or beetroot, ginger and coconut – to name just a few.

Of course with a name like Black Dog Tea Room they are almost obliged to allow dogs to enter and on Wednesdays, their day off, they can normally be seen walking on East Beach with their own dogs Jorge the black Labrador and Martha the Springer Spaniel.

So if you are on your way to Lyme Regis or just out and about do drop in for a coffee or tea, they open from 10am to 5pm every day except Wednesdays.

Week four raises awareness surrounding the darker nights to coincide with the clocks going back, encouraging you to make sure the exterior of your home and any outbuildings are fully pro-

WHICH SMART LOCK IS RIGHT FOR ME?

WHATEVER type of door you have, there's a smart lock to fit your home. Use the simple guide below to see which locks right for you.

PVCu?

PVCu doors are the most common form of replacement doors and feature a multipoint lock running the length of the door. A multipoint lock often locks in three places and features rollers to ensure a tight, weatherproof seal, making for a highly efficient and more secure locking solution. PVCu doors are often made of a white plastic resin, but are available in other finishes.

Composite?

Composite doors also feature a multipoint lock, and are often finished in a woodgrain effect, to give them a more natural timber look.

Timber?

A traditional timber door usually features a nightlatch, which has a single locking point that is often round-edged and spring loaded. Timber doors can be fabricated from softwood or hardwood, and can include glazed panels and a moulded fascia. Finished in either a natural glaze or a coloured paint, a timber door can be easily identified by the distinctive sound of knocking on wood.

THE FREEDOM TO SECURE YOUR HOME WITHOUT THE NEED FOR A KEY

THE Yale Keyfree Connected smart lock gives you freedom to secure your home without the need for a key. Simple to use, you now have complete control on how you unlock your door.

Convenience

There's no need to worry if your children arrive home early, or if you're stuck at work with friends on your doorstep. You control who and when people have access to your home. For example, you can set a PIN code that works for 24 hours for a family member or your cleaning person.

Simple to use

You choose how you want to open your door. PIN code, remote fob and even more from your smartphone when connected to a smart home system. It is also easy to add and remove users if you need to.

Security as standard

Feeling safe and secure is a must for any homeowner. In addition to a tamper alarm and incorrect PIN code feature the smart lock is approved by the Police Secured by Design scheme.

Always on

Don't worry if the electricity goes down as the smart lock is powered by 4 AA batteries. It will even warn you when the batteries are running low.

Connectivity

Complete your smart home system. The Keyfree Connected smart lock can connect to leading smart home systems when the appropriate module is fitted. It also connects to the Yale SmartPhone Alarm and CCTV systems when you use the Yale module.

Wessex Jewellers

Are you getting married soon?

LET Wessex Jewellers help you get the best ring for you!

The wedding ring is the one lasting reminder of the promises you both make to one another on your special day. The meaning of the wedding ring can be traced back almost 5,000 years. It is said the wedding ring tradition was first originated by the Egyptians who some 4,800 years ago twisted plant material (such as hemp) into rings and bracelets. They believed the round symbolism of wedding rings was linked to an eternal love with no end. Use of the wedding band symbol is mentioned in the hieroglyphics on the walls of Egyptian tombs as translated by archaeologists. These days we use precious metals to make our wedding rings - including silver, gold, palladium and platinum. At Wessex Jewellers, we can measure you and advise on the best fit, style and material for your individual needs. We can also supply shaped wedding rings to sit next to your engagement ring. Alternatively, we can cut a section out to fit or even add a diamond or two!

Come in and see us and we will do our best to help you find the right wedding rings for your special day!

Michelle Hague - Clinical Hypnotherapy

Helping to cope with stress and anxiety Don't let flying stop your honeymoon choices

ANXIETY and stress can often create symptoms that in time cause illness. Anxiety is known to produce noticeable physical symptoms, such as rapid heartbeat, high blood pressure, and digestive problems. In General Anxiety Disorder (GAD) and Social Anxiety Disorder (SAD) the symptoms become so severe that normal daily functioning. Clinical Hypnosis and Cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT) are common treatments for stress and anxiety disorders and can be very effective in changing thinking and responses. In contrast with CBT and in many ways very similar to Hypnosis Mindfulness and mindfulness-based therapies (MBTs) seek to change the relationship between the anxious person and his or her thoughts.

In mindfulness, the person focuses on the bodily sensations that arise when anxious. Instead of avoiding or withdrawing from these feelings, the focus is on remaining present and fully experiences the symptoms of anxiety. Instead of avoiding distressing thoughts, opening up to them in an effort to accept that they are not literally true, just ideas and imaginings often related to the past or future events but no less unreal in the present. By remaining present in the moment aware of the breath and the body, individuals can learn that the anxiety they experience is merely a reaction to thoughts. By positively responding to threatening events instead of being reactive they can overcome an mistaken stress fight-or-flight response, and take control of their life.

This Photographer Does Photo Shoots on a 350ft Cliff

www.petapixel.com

PHOTOGRAPHER Jay Philbrick takes his subjects where most photographers wouldn't dare to go themselves: onto the face of a cliff, 350 feet above the ground.

You see, Philbrick started his career as a professional mountain guide before picking up a camera and starting a photography business. His passion for the great outdoors and for hanging off rock faces can be seen in his amazing portraiture.

Philbrick takes his clients to Echo Lake State Park in New Hampshire, where the 700-foot Cathedral Ledge looms over the lake. With climbing gear, he carefully lowers his subjects onto a small outcropping on the face of the cliff, about 350 feet up.

He then photographs his subjects in formal attire as a dramatic sunrise glows in the background.

The subjects may look like they're teetering on the edge of certain death in the photos, but they're actually safely secured to the cliff with ropes that are hidden behind them. The results are incredible.

You can find more of Philbrick's photography over on his website: www.philbrickphoto.com

Pointed blues from The Spikedrivers

THEIR music has been described as 'haunting', 'gutsy', 'tribal' and even psychedelic. Blues in Britain says, "From the first note, Spikedrivers demand to be listened to." Guitarist Ben Tyzack, Bassist Constance Redgrave and percussionist Maurice McElroy are a new sound of transatlantic blues.

From the early blues of Robert Johnson, John Lee Hooker and Big Bill Broonzy they have added their own blend of north African and Native American rhythms, gospel harmonies, sixties blues and rock guitar. They've been compared to The Band, Led Zeppelin, Ry Cooder, JJ Cale, Pentangle, Fleetwood Mac and even Pink Floyd. It all adds up to simply the Spikedrivers.

With their high energy show, Spikedrivers have been burning up European festival stages. They've gained rave reviews at the Chedigny Blues Festival, Cognac Blues Passions, Lugano Blues to Bop Festival, Brecon Jazz Festival, and the Jazz Rallye de Luxembourg to name just a few.

"For their multitude of admirers, they seem to be growing in stature as a headline band. If you have not seen them you simply must." Blues in Britain.

The Spikedrivers play DA Blues night at Dorchester Corn Exchange on Saturday, October 1st at 8pm (doors and bar 7.30pm).

Bridport music day to raise funds for Food Bank

THE ROPEMAKERS in Bridport is hosting a day of music to raise money for the local food bank, Cupboard Love as part of "We Shall Overcome" a national weekend of gigs which will see over 250 concerts across the UK, and beyond, all under one banner.

"We Shall Overcome" is a community effort led by musicians and music promoters who want to do something practical to help people in our area who are being hit hard by homelessness and poverty.

"We Shall Overcome" is happening across the UK and over 200 events are being held in October, with The Ropemakers' gig being on Saturday, October 8th. The organisers hope this show of solidarity will also highlight the human cost to the politics of austerity. Several thousand musicians will perform as audiences are encouraged to bring food for foodbanks or make donations to homelessness and other projects.

Keith Hatch, one of the organisers of the gig at The Ropemakers, Bridport, said "We Shall Overcome is very much pro-community initiative with events the length of the country aimed at supporting local projects. We wanted to do our bit here in Bridport to show solidarity and be part of something big that's happening right across the country"

"Cupboard Love has been doing a brilliant job providing food parcels to those in need in the area, and unfortunately the numbers that need to make use of their services continues to grow. I thought it really important to get involved in We Shall Overcome and support our local food bank."

Last year's event raised over £750 to help people in Bridport using the Food Bank, and this year organisers hope to top that.

Headlining the event will be Black Water County – folk punk favourites who have been rapidly gaining in popularity since bursting onto the Dorset music scene in 2013. The bands and musicians taking part throughout the rest of the day include Natures Cage, Garry Smith Band, Those Voices Poor, Ruthy Ni Conallian, Abi Rich, Behind Closed Doors and Jamie McDonald.

The Ropemakers' event is on Saturday, October 8th and runs from 3pm to late with admission free, but audiences are being asked to make a donation to Cupboard Love food bank.

The future of fishing is In Our Hands at The Lyric

ALF IS A trawler fisherman whose experience, camaraderie and loyalty have put him and his boat at the top of the game. But times are changing and so is the industry. How will Alf adapt in order to survive?

Using innovative puppetry and inventive staging, from mini seagulls to fish and chips, rolls of net and boats on sticks, join Alf as he journeys from the depths of despair to rise again and rescue the life he loves, in Smoking Apples' latest sumptuous theatre production 'In Our Hands' at The Lyric Theatre on Wednesday, October 5th.

Follow the journey of a fish from sea to plate, watch a seagull's ridiculous attempt to find food and witness a father and son reunite. In Our Hands will transport you out to sea, under the ocean and onto the deck of the Catcher's Fortune.

In Our Hands has been developed extensively both in London and Cornwall by Smoking Apples, an award-winning puppetry and visual theatre company, who presented their wonderful show CELL about a man with Motor Neurone Disease at The Lyric last year. More often than not, Smoking Apples work with difficult, hard-to-digest subject matters. They create innovative shows, making their subjects enjoyable and accessible for audiences, combining puppets, live actors and a unique style of movement.

To make this show, the company undertook extensive research in Newlyn, Penzance and St Ives. During this time, they met Stefan Glinski, a fisherman who saw the potential in fishing sardines, adapted his boat to catch them and is almost single handedly responsible for their rise in popularity and the now hugely successful Cornish Sardine industry. Stefan's story inspired part of the narrative of In Our Hands.

Tickets are £12, available in advance from Bridport Arts Centre: 01308 424204 / online, and BearKat Bistro, as well as on the door if available. Doors open 7:30pm for 8pm prompt start.

Stuart is comedy gold

RISEING TV comedy star Stuart Goldsmith will headline the latest comedy café show in Bridport next week.

The Bridport Arts Centre Comedy Café will be held in the newly renovated venue next Wednesday with regular host Tom Glover and a full line up of comedy talent.

Headlining the show will be Stuart Goldsmith an act who sparkles with the effortless charisma and quick-fire timing he honed over a misspent youth as a street-performer. Nowadays he is internationally recognised for original, striking stand-up comedy; his last three solo shows making him an "expert standup" (Sunday Times), and a "consistent fringe must-see" (Broadway Baby). As seen on Russell Howard's Stand Up Comedy Central, ITV's Show Me The Funny and Alan Davies As Yet Untitled.

Supporting Stuart will be one of the westcountry's best loved new acts, Richard James. Rich was a finalist in the South Coast Comedian of the Year, hosted the Eminent Banter showcase at the Edinburgh Fringe festival in 2014 and has some great stories of life living in the westcountry.

Compelling the line up will be lovable Welshman David Arnold and café regular Niki McCretton.

As ever the line up has been hand picked by resident compere Tom Glover. "This is potentially the best line up we've ever had at the comedy café," Said Tom.

"Stu Goldsmith is one of the best loved acts on the circuit, and the support line up are some of my favourite local comics.

"If you've never been to the comedy café before then this is the one to try. It won't disappoint."

The BAC Comedy Cafe will be at 8pm on Wednesday, October 5th. Tickets are £8 adults/£6 concessions and available from the arts centre box office on 01308 424204.

Albee Vector the Sound Collector

ALBEE VECTOR the Sound Collector is coming to town and he's bringing Mustard the sound-hoover. Prepare to make some noise!

After sell out shows at Bristol Old Vic and Mini Vaults festival, Greenlight Theatre are bringing their smash-hit, interactive children's show to Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, October 1st.

In a re-telling of The Odyssey, Albee travels to the ends of the earth seeking the most beautiful sound in the world. Using a myriad of sounds from his collection - including a gurgling river, seaweed pixies and a badger in the bathtub - Albee, and his friend Andromeda, recount their epic tale. How they picked up a motley crew of friends along the way, navigated treacherous waters and fought a Cyclops, before learning the true meaning of the sound he sought. However, some of the sounds are running low so Albee enlists the audience's help, and that of his sound hoover, Mustard, to top them up.

A truly interactive show, perfect for those aged 3-7, but one which all the family can enjoy.

All performances are relaxed. All are welcome.

Tickets are £8 and £6, or £25 for a family ticket, and are available online at www.bridport-arts.com or by calling 01308 424204.

Morgan & West's magnificent magic

Morgan & West

ALLOW yourself to be transported back in time at Bridport Arts Centre with time travelling magic duo Morgan and West on Friday, September 30. Their incredible show 'Parlour Tricks' is chock full of jaw-dropping, brain-bursting, gasp-eliciting feats of magic.

Set in Morgan and West Victorian Parlour, these two rather 'spiffing' chaps will entertain you with some mind boggling tricks. Rhys Morgan and Robert West are comedy magicians who can count Derren Brown as one of their fans. They don't rely on lights and special effects, they fully confess to being liars and cheats but they are so charming, you really don't mind.

The show features traditional magic; cards and feats of memory, all delivered with witty banter and a warm camaraderie.

Morgan and West are skilled and incredibly talented and very enjoyable. The characters they project and the set where they work their magic feels new and fresh - breathing new life into old tricks. The dashing chaps offer up a plateful of illusion and impossibility, all served with wit, charm and no small amount of panache. Be sure to wear a hat - Morgan and West might just blow your mind!

Tickets are £12 and £10 available online at www.bridport-arts.com or by calling 01308 424204

Hard Times and Hard Travelin'

Will Kaufman brings his 'live documentary' on Woody Guthrie comes to Bridport

WILL KAUFMAN will be bringing his captivating show Woody Guthrie: Hard Times & Hard Travelin' to Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, October 8th. Kaufman describes the show as a "live documentary" performing and elaborating on the songs of Woody Guthrie and their context of the American 1930s and the state of popular music itself.

Woody Guthrie - the American folk singer and champion of the working class who famously inspired Bob Dylan - is a fascinating subject for a show. The songs are great, "This Land Is Your Land" is even considered the US' second national anthem, but the stories behind them and his life are equally captivating. Kaufman performs the songs with great panache, playing the guitar, banjo and violin with enviable skill. Such hard-hitting Guthrie songs as "Vigilante Man", "Pretty Boy Floyd" and "I Ain't Got No Home" are brought into conversation with other relevant songs - from Joe Hill's "The Preacher and the Slave" to "Brother, Can You Spare a Dime?". Altogether the show highlights the blending of music and radical politics that marks Guthrie's most powerful work.

Will Kaufman, as well as being a singer and multi-instrumentalist is a Professor of American Literature and Culture at the University of Central Lancashire in Preston, England. He has given his Woody Guthrie presentations at such major events as the Glastonbury Festival, the Bath International Music Festival, the Whitby Folk Festival, the Big Session, and the Piacenza Literature and Blues Festival in Italy. He has also performed at countless European and American universities, folk clubs and union halls. Will has written a number of books on American culture and in 2008 Will was awarded his first Woody Guthrie Research Fellowship from the Broadcast Music Industry Foundation, which enabled him to write the first political biography of Guthrie, Woody Guthrie, American Radical (Illinois, 2011). He won his second BMI-Woody Guthrie Fellowship in 2014 and he is currently at work on a second book, Woody Guthrie's Modern World Blues. He was consultant to Johnny Depp and Douglas Brinkley for the publication of their co-edited edition of Guthrie's recently discovered novel, House of Earth (2013).

Will Kaufman's Woody Guthrie: Hard Times & Hard Travelin' comes to Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, October 8th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £12 and £10, available online at www.bridport-arts.com or by calling 01308 424204

Bridport talk focuses on musical revolutions

JOIN Bridport Labour for an evening exploring the history of protest music and learn about its role in social change, drawing on key songs from the 1930s to the present day.

Journalist Neil Duncan-Jordan will give the talk, entitled "Revolutions per minute: a history of protest music" on Wednesday, October 5th at the WI Hall on Bridport South Street.

The talk covers music ranging from Billie Holiday's Strange Fruit to Robert Wyatt's Shipbuilding via Edward Starrs War and recent songs recorded by refugees as the Calais Sessions.

The event is linked to a national week of music and more entitled "We Shall Overcome" which is raising money for local food banks

Event organiser Keith Hatch said; "As part of We Shall Overcome I thought it would be good to bring Neil fascinating talk on the history of protest music to Bridport. Neil first delivered the talk at Bournemouth University as part of a learning festival and it went incredibly well."

"Protest music is very diverse, it can be folk music, soul, world music, hip-hop and rap. The talk will draw together these strands to look at the way protest music has developed over the last century."

Doors open at 7.00 pm with the talk starting at 7.30. Entrance is £5 on the door and all money raised will go to Cupboard Love Food Bank.

Music is the Food of Love this Autumn at Dorchester Arts

DORCHESTER ARTS welcomes Olivier award-winning company OperaUpClose to the Corn Exchange in October, as they mark the Bard's 400th anniversary with a lively, unusual and groundbreaking musical performance of all things Shakespearean.

It's the first day of Spring and four friends are having a picnic. Will their various love triangles resolve themselves in true Shakespearean style, or will heartbreak and jealousy drive them to folly? It's Shakespeare in love, in lust, in loathing, in laughter... but definitely all in music!

Music Oft Hath Such a Charm takes works inspired by the poetry and plays of Shakespeare, including show-stopping arias from Verdi's Falstaff; the witty banter of Much Ado About Nothing; famous songs such as Schubert's Who is Sylvia? and the musical theatre flamboyance of Kiss Me Kate.

Known for its innovatively staged, un-intimidating, affordable and high quality English chamber re-imaginings of well-known opera and song, vocal quartet OperaUpClose performs songs, ensembles, choruses and operatic arias with a virtuosic piano accompaniment.

So brush up your Shakespeare and join Dorchester Arts in paying homage to the greatest playwright of them all.

Music Oft Hath Such a Charm comes to Dorchester Corn Exchange on Friday, October 7th 2016, 8pm. For booking visit www.dorchester-arts.org.uk or call 01305 266926.

Last few tickets remain for Papa Le Gal and Zuri Aura's Marine Theatre gig

Papa Le Gal

A STOMPING evening of Funk heavy Latin and Afrobeat hosted by local mischief makers Papa Le Gál (featuring the brass section from King Porter Stomp) will be taking place at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis, next week, with it's usual tropical revelry.

This time, Papa will be proudly sharing the bill with the obscenely talented Zuri Aura from Exeter. Smashing out a soulful dose of reggae fusion with a Dub/Hip Hop twist.

Plus surprise warm up act to be announced!

This is without doubt gonna be a night overflowing with worldly musical goodness to get your blood pumping and say "Hey, just because the summer's over doesn't mean we have to cover ourselves in goose fat and go into hibernation. Let's party!"

Live music from 8.30-12 (Bar till 1am).

The last few tickets are available online from Papa Le Gál's website at www.papalegalofficial.com for £10.50.

Paradise Lost

LOST DOG, the highly entertaining dance/theatre company is fronted by its Artistic Director Ben Duke whose self-penned 'Paradise Lost (Lies Unopened Beside Me)' has been performing to critical acclaim and capacity audiences for over a year.

A one-man staging of Milton's epic Paradise Lost, combining theatre, comedy and movement this is a journey through the story of the creation of everything condensed into 80 minutes, beginning with Lucifer's rebellion and ending with Adam and Eve's expulsion from The Garden of Eden. Ben Duke plays all the characters, creates all the scenes and, despite his best efforts, falls a little short of perfection. "It's a show for anyone who has created anything (child, garden, paper aeroplane) and then watched it spiral out of control," he says.

This autumn Ben is partnering with the Rural Touring Dance Initiative - to take 'Paradise Lost' to community spaces and rural hubs in Somerset, Dorset, and North Yorkshire.

Paradise Lost will be performed at Drimpton Hall, Chard Road, Drimpton (DT8 3RF) on Saturday, October 8th. Tickets £9/£6, or £25 family, available by calling 01308 867442 or from www.artsreach.co.uk

MORE AWARDS FOR CHARTERED SURVEYORS SYMONDS & SAMPSON

Symonds
& Sampson
ESTABLISHED 1858

SYMONDS & SAMPSON have been established for over 158 years and have flourished by attracting free thinking people who give their clients exceptional service through informed professional advice.

The firm are recognised as one of the leading firms in the country having won a number of awards and have been judged by the very best industry standards. This year they have had success in the International Property Awards and the Negotiator Awards.

Senior partner, Andrew Robinson, says "We were very proud to be considered, let alone nominated, for the different awards and to be acknowledged by respected people within the surveying and agency world is a great achievement."

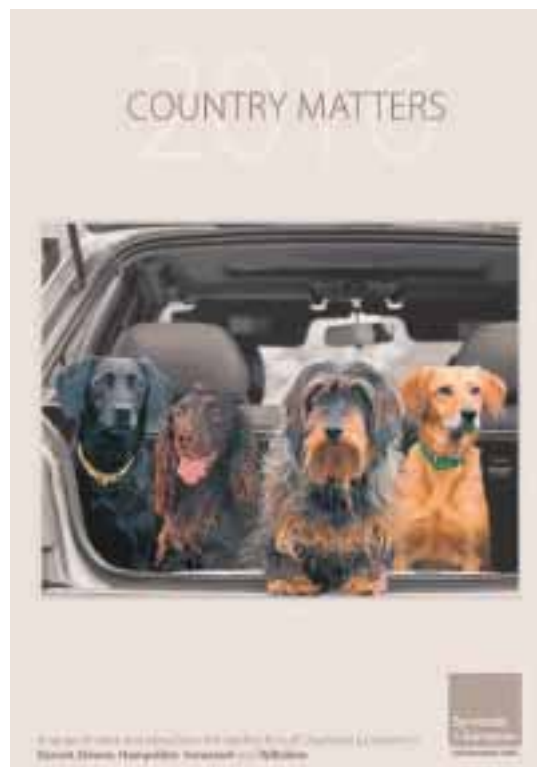

"Symonds & Sampson have won best marketing in the south west principally for their annual magazine 'Country Matters' but also for our flamboyant advertising. We now go forward to be judged for the national award. The magazine is put together by a small in house team, mainly in their spare time, and is a unique and diverse publication that is read with anticipation by our clients and fellow professionals"

"We have also won best lettings agency in Dorset and, again, will be referred to the adjudicators for the whole of the UK. This is a reflection of the immense amount of pride the staff in our lettings department have in their work providing outstanding service to our clients."

The awards will be collected at a series of black tie dinners in London in October for the International Property Awards and in November for the Negotiator Awards.

Colour code: White is the colour of choice in Dorset

WHITE is the colour of choice for motorists in Bridport and Weymouth according to car sales data from local Vauxhall retailer, Lanehouse Vauxhall. Part of a UK-wide study into car colour, the findings are in line with the national picture where White is also the most popular choice.

While a neutral colour palette of white, black and grey is favoured by most, some motorists are breaking the mould with occasional splashes of yellow and orange also on the specification list when purchasing their shiny new motor.

Vauxhall has partnered with leading psychologist, Professor Craig Jackson, from Birmingham City University to look at why we are drawn to particular colours when choosing a car. He explains why colour preference is such a complex area:

"This is an aspect of human behaviour that psychologists have been researching for decades, yet it can still be quite a confusing area. The relationship between people and the colours around us can be quite complex, and colour preferences are not the same for all products. For instance, people generally prefer white kitchen appliances, but not white TVs. When it comes to cars, we often see red sports cars but not so many red 4x4s."

Across Europe, research reinforces the four most popular colours of vehicles to be white, black, grey and silver. As a major purchase, Professor Jackson believes these more neutral coloured vehicles are seen as more tasteful and easier to live with as a major purchase. However, he explains how colour choice is not always purely rational:

"Some experts believe colour preferences are related to our emotional responses to certain colours, while others think we have learned and associated coloured objects with emotions. This is known as colour valence theory and would suggest a blue car reminds us of clear skies and water, while a white car may subconsciously remind us of weddings. Others believe there may be more basic biological preferences for certain colours that may help us survive and thrive in nature.

"While car colour probably reveals more about our lifestyle and circumstances than it does about our personalities, we can make some interpretations about what a particular choice might reveal about the driver's character traits and perhaps their mood when they bought the car."

Commenting on the study, Dominic Avery, Company Director at Lanehouse Vauxhall, said:

"There has been a strong return to favouring white cars in recent years, but we are seeing other contenders creeping in - red remains a classic option for many drivers.

"Colour is very important to the majority of our customers and is a key way of injecting their own personality into their vehicle. Some like to be distinctive with colour, while others are more attuned to current trends. We love to see our customers enjoy the process of creating their own bespoke vehicle and really making it their own."

Appealing to drivers looking for a car to stand out from the crowd, the Vauxhall ADAM provides more personalisation options than ever before. With a creative palette of 19 colours including 'James Blonde', 'Pump up the blue' and 'I'll be black' as well as vivid tones provided through 'Mr Darkside', 'Dancing Green' and 'Orange Alert', customers to the dealerships in Bridport and Weymouth can find their perfect match.

What Does Your Car Say About You?

Blue / Green / White: These classic colours are most likely to be the choice of confident, yet unobtrusive individuals who feel little need to force their own agenda or views on others.

Silver / Grey: The sign of a practical, pragmatic and conservative person. Owners of grey and silver cars are likely to be logical thinkers who plan ahead.

Red / Orange / Black: These are the traditional 'sporty' colours and drivers of these cars may be competitive, but also have traditional views. They probably see themselves as desirable people and could have a tendency to take things a little too seriously at times.

Brown / Gold: Both shades are preferred by women. These are unobtrusive and non-threatening individuals who are thoughtful of others and steady characters.

Yellow / Purple: These are the drivers with the most individualistic viewpoints who are likely to be peaceful, people-focused and caring towards others.

Pink: Drivers of this feminine hue are likely to have an optimistic outlook and strong sense of self-identity, but could have a tendency to overlook the needs of others at times.

To find your colour co-ordinated Vauxhall and to view the extensive range of vehicles, visit Lanehouse Vauxhall with retailers in Bridport and Weymouth.

WELLINGTON TOWN RESERVES 1

LYME REGIS 2

Devon &amp; Exeter Division One

SUPERB strikes from Kieren Daniels and Sam Day, their first for the club, saw Lyme Regis continue their unbeaten start to the season and knock early pacesetters Wellington off top spot.

The Seasideers went close early on with a Dan Baggs clipped effort just over the angle, while skipper Gary Knight was unlucky with a far post volley from a corner that bounced off the crossbar.

The hosts had their moments too; a long downfield punt from the home keeper bounced right through but an attempted lob over Lee Cleal was misjudged. Then defender Luke Clifton made a brave saving tackle when a goal seemed imminent.

But it was Lyme who struck first. Julien Simier, who put in a MoM shift up front, did well to find Daniels who let fly with a low left foot drive from the edge of the box that nestled in the bottom corner of the Welly net.

Lyme were good value for their lead which they took in to the interval, but Wellington equalised soon after the turnaround when Connor Pengelly unleashed a scorching volley from distance that gave keeper Lee Cleal no chance.

The Seasideers' response was swift with Sam Day, summoned from the bench early in the second half, letting fly with a magnificent 25-yarder that curved away from the keeper and found the top corner.

Simier should have added a third 13 minutes from time when he missed his kick when unmarked at the back stick after a Day cross had flicked off the head of the Wellington centre-back.

There was drama deep into stoppage time at both ends.

In the 93rd minute Daniels was in the right place to stop a fierce shot on the line and the rebound was smashed against the underside of the crossbar from three yards out before being hacked clear.

Then, down the other end, substitute Rhys Hayter seemed certain to score Lyme's third from a yard out only to be denied by a last ditch saving tackle.

After the game Lyme manager Robin Townsend was purring about what he describe as "A great team performance right across the team."

STOKE HILL 0

Devon &amp; Exeter D6

LYME REGIS Reserves made it back-to-back home wins with what player-manager Gerard Hitchcock felt was a completely deserved victory: "They (Stoke) were a very physical side and had a couple of efforts correctly disallowed for offside, but overall we dominated for the 90 minutes".

The Seasideers took the lead in the 20th minute when visiting keeper Jack Blight made a hash of Ally Rattenbury's cross from the left.

Lyme went close again soon after when Blight atoned with a fine save to keep out a Wallace Blackmore toe poke from the edge of the area that was destined for the top corner.

The hosts were then forced into a reshuffle with striker Ryan Fifer forced off through illness to be replaced by Hitchcock.

The player-boss nearly got on the score sheet with a well-struck shot that was brilliantly saved by Blight.

But Lyme weren't to be denied their second and Hitchcock dinked in a close range cross to Blackmore who headed home from inches out.

WINSHAM UTD 3 NETHERBURY 0

WINSHAM maintained their perfect start to the season while Netherbury are still waiting to get their first points on the board.

The early part of the game was quite even with Netherbury keeping Winsham at arms length and mounting some useful counter attacks themselves.

The Ambers had the first chance when Alex Goodrick played a through ball to Kristian Steward who perhaps could have shot, but his cross just eluded Ash Carter at the back post.

Steward was played in again on 20 minutes but, despite escaping his defender, his shot sailed over the bar.

This stirred the hosts and Ambers' keeper Arthur Gay was called upon to make an excellent reaction save, clawing the ball out from a one-on-one opportunity and George Green cleared a ball off the line.

Winsham took the lead on the half-hour when Gay was unable to hold a long range shot and Bradley Masters slotted home the rebound.

The Ambers conceded a second before half time when a quick through ball sliced them open and Tom Stead was not tracked and finished well.

Going down the slope Pete Ellingham's 48th minute cross only needed a touch in the six yard box, but none of his team mates were there to tap it home.

In the 65 minute, Steward won the ball on halfway and galloped towards goal, where he was one-on-one with the keeper but shot over the bar.

Winsham scored with their only shot on target in the second half, when Josh James' misjudgement allowed Sam Symes in to score for 3-0.

Netherbury Joint Manager Paul Cuff said: "I thought in general we coped with Winsham's attacks quite well, but we got punished for a couple of mistakes in the first half, and unfortunately we were unable to make the most of the chances we created."

"The lads are however improving with every game". He picked out George Green for a very impressive showing at right back as his star man.

CORONATION CUP

CHARD UTD 5 DRIMPTON 1

A RED card for Corrin Corrick before half time proved crucial as Drimpton let slip a 1-0 lead and slumped out of the Coronation Cup.

The Greens led through a George Tuck goal but Chard leveled through Dan Rogers before the interval and took control after the break.

Rogers went on the bag a hat-trick and there were singles from Jamie Brown and Jon Shopland with Scott Miller earning manager Paul Macklin's MoM award.

MISTERTON 6 COMBE RESERVES 0

MISTERTON, who lifted the trophy four times in the 80s/90s, could be a good bet to make it five if Saturday's showing is anything to go by.

Harvey Saunders, George Gillman, Jamie Spurdle, Jason Rendall, Harry Manley and Ashley Dodge shared the missy goals against struggling Combe who have lost all five matches this season.

SHEPTON BEAUCHAMP 1 BARRINGTON 3
BARRINGTON manager Sid Brown was pleased with his side's response after last week's disappointing defeat against Winsham.

"We were much improved despite having seven players missing," said Brown.

The visitors grabbed an early lead when Sam Spurway nodded home Gary Warren's free-kick.

A fine solo effort from Carl Lazenby doubled the lead before Shepton, last season's runners-up, pulled one back through a Sam Murley penalty.

But Barrington, who gave a debut to former Chard Town keeper Stuart Parris, clinched the win with a James Thompson penalty in the second half.

Quarter-final draw; Chard Utd v Winsham Utd, Netherbury v Beamster, Barrington v South Petherton, W&M Chinnock v Misterton.

DIVISION ONE CUP - R1

BARRINGTON RESERVES A-W UPLYME

UPLYME were awarded walkover into the last eight when scheduled hosts Barrington failed to raise a side.

HAWKHURCH UTD 9 PYMORE 2

HAWKHURCH United booked a Division One cup quarter-final at Shepton Beauchamp after brushing aside Pymore 9-2 on Saturday.

Goals for Gavin Herrod and James Melville put the Hawks in control with just 15 minutes on the clock.

But the west Dorset side squandered a clear chance to get back into the game when home keeper James Mitcham made his second penalty save of the season after referee Lance Turner had spotted a push by Jack Larcombe.

This sparked the hosts back into life and Herrod struck twice more and Dan Richards made it 5-1 at half-time.

Pymore pulled another goal back early in the second half only for Herrod to bag his fourth and Melville to score twice more to complete his hat-trick.

The scoring was rounded off by a Glenn Harding. Fred Parsons and Shane Webb netted for Pymore.

Quarter-final draw; Combe A v Forton Rangers, Waytown Hounds v Uplyme, Merriott Rovers v Ilminster Town Colts, Shepton Beau Res v Hawkhurst Utd.

DAISY HUTCHINGS CUP R1

WAYTOWN HOUNDS 3 CHARD RANGERS 2
WAYTOWN faced Chard Rangers in the 1st round of the Daisy Hutchings Cup, looking to put their opening day defeat to Hawkhurst behind them.

Chard Rangers had started their campaign well, so although a league lower, Waytown knew a victory would have to be earned.

Lining up 3-5-2 the Hounds dominated early possession but against the run of play Chard broke well and George Best smashed the ball home.

Waytown managed to get back level thanks to great work from Jon Legg and an unfortunate blunder by the visiting keeper who palmed his shot into the net.

It wasn't long before the Hounds took the lead. Legg whipped in a corner and Captain Tom Knott headed home.

The host continued to play well and soon it was 3-1. Chard failed to clear their lines following a corner and the ball was played back into Steve Masters who headed home.

But right on the stroke of half-time a mistake by the Hounds keeper gifted Ryan Peasland Rangers' second.

In blustery conditions Waytown failed to find a fourth and Chard threatened in a tense second half hitting the woodwork late on to almost force extra-time, but the game finished 3-2.

Steve Masters, who played 60 minutes as an unfamiliar wing-back was the new manager Joe Carter's pick as MOM.

Last 16 draw; Hawkhurst Utd v Waytown Hounds, Misterton Res v Barrington Res, Chard Utd Res v Farway Utd, Dowlish & Donyatt v Pymore, Ilminster Colts v Crewkerne Rangers, Shepton Beau Res v Merriott Rovers, Halstock v Thorncombe.

DIVISION TWO

KINGSBURY EPISCOPI 2 CHARMOUTH 3

A DAN Rendell goal clinched three battling points for Charmouth at a windswept Kingsbury.

They started well and inside the first minute a cross from Rendell was headed in by Bill Ward.

But disaster struck soon after when they were reduced to 10 men for the remaining 83 minutes after experienced defender Danny Parr was red-carded for the first time in his long career for a trip in the box, and Giles McGilvray tucked away the resulting spot-kick.

And things got worse for the 10-man Robins when Ollie Osborn put the hosts ahead. But they rallied and Jack Reeve equalised. They should have gone ahead in the 41st minute when Reeve was felled in the area but Rendell's penalty was well saved by the home gloveman.

With the wind in their favour in the second half Charmouth were the better side and Ward had a goal disallowed for offside.

But the victory was clinched when Rendell made up for his spot-kick miss.

"The lads all gave 110 per cent and that's three from three and a great start to life in Division Two," said Robins' boss Kevin Pratt.

◆ OFF: Danny Parr received his first ever red card

DIVISION THREE

THORNCOMBE RES 5 LYME REGIS ROVERS 3
A LATE rally saw Lyme Rovers fight back from 5-1 to 5-3 but the damage had been done in a disastrous 10-minute spell at the start of the second half when they conceded three times.

The Thorns took an early lead but The Seasideers we soon level when Robbie Prior converted a fine cross from the left by Tom Wood.

Some hesitant defending handed the hosts a second and they carried the slender lead into the interval.

There followed the trio of blows soon after the turnaround and the Thorns were in control.

Lyme thought they had pulled one back but striker Simon Flux had an effort ruled out for what Lyme thought was a very debatable offside flag.

But the Lyme third string persevered and Ryan King, who was shifted from centre-back into the midfield, crossed for Flux to swivel well and score on the turn.

The third goal came right on the full time whistle when King was scythed down in the area and the 16-year-old dusted himself down before smashing home the penalty.

UPLYME RESERVES 8 MERRIOTT DYNAMOS 2
A COMPREHENSIVE victory on their own Venlake turf propelled Uplyme four points clear at the top of division three.

They had a great start when James Souter-Phillips found the net from 25-yards. The team were then guilty of missing good chances in the remainder of the half before Jonny Harris found the roof of the net from an acute angle just before the break.

Former Crewkerne Town midfielder Danny Baker pulled one back for the Dynamos with a long-range shot.

But the Swallows recovered well and strikes from Jonny and Frank Harris put them away and clear before Fred Thompson bagged a brace and MoM Wes Holmes nodded in number seven.

Frank Harris made it 8-1 before Baker cooked up his second to round things off.

Motor Sport

Speedsters back at Charmouth

CORNISHMAN Mike Lee asserted himself on the Manor Farm hill-climb course at Charmouth to take a brace of victories across the weekend to claim the Eric Moxom Memorial and The Anniversary Trophies.

The Suzuki powered OMS 2000M pilot claimed the Fastest Time of the Day in both of the Woolbridge Motor Club events but was challenged all the way by fellow single-seater driver James Gibson.

The Sidmouth driver, in his OMS Hornet in the up to 1100cc category, one division below that of Lee, kept the multiple Manor Farm winner honest finishing a mere 15 hundredths of a second in arrears and reducing that margin to 13 hundredths the following day.

The over 1800cc capacity split of Sports Racers saw a brace of wins for Rod Thorne.

The Frampton garage proprietor, back on four wheels following his recent debut with the Shellbourne motorcycle sidecar unit, was determined to keep the pressure on the single-seater racer car drivers for the honour of Fastest Time of The Day.

◆ SLEEK: Stewart Lillington in his Radical SR4.

Thorne posted a best climb of 26.42 seconds on the first day of the meeting in his Rover V8 powered Pilbeam MP43 sports racer to claim his first win with Phil Gale securing third in his circuit racing Darrian T9.

The Winfrith Newburgh driver using the meeting as a test session

prior to his final outing of the season in the Castle Coombe sports car series was using tyres with a compound suitable for racing rather than the very soft rubber employed on many of the cars in speed hill climbing.

Thorne took the honours in the Sunday meeting but had to rely on his first run climb of 27.47 seconds having spun off the track in his final run of the weekend.

Others to claim a double over the weekend included brothers in motor sporting arms, Andrew and James Forsyth.

The former, at the wheel of his Suzuki Megabusa powered Westfield, took comfortable victories over the similar car of Adrian Lewis and the two litre Ford powered variant of Andy Cawsey.

Meanwhile, James secured his wins in only his third event at the wheel of his late father's Alfa Dana. James came home in front of the Cooper Jap of Bridport driver Tim Sage on both occasions.

Bere Regis driver Stephen Wareham finished down the order in the Downton Engineering Works Social Club class on the first day of the meeting.

But he revelled in the slippery conditions a day later to take the class honours in his Morris Mini with a time of 31.03 seconds to defeat the Vauxhall Nova of Steve Harris on 31.52.

◆ ALWAYS ON THE POWER: Rod Thorne uses the torque and acceleration of the Rover V8 powered Pilbeam MP43.

Ambitious Keech aiming to make breakthrough

LOCAL golfer Sophie Keech announced her intentions of becoming one of Europe's elite lady golfers with a magnificent 4th place finish at the recent Elisefarm Ladies Open in Sweden - one of a series of 15 Ladies European Tour Access events.

After turning professional at the end of the 2015 season, Sophie took every opportunity once called upon from a waiting list of nearly 200 ladies.

Having now played in seven events, she has made four times cuts with her previous best, a joint 17th in Belgium, being outgunned last week in Sweden after the 20-year-old carded outstanding scores of 70-70-73 to finish -3, rounds which included 14 birdies.

Sophie leaves for Strasbourg in France later this week for Round 12. With events after this in The Azroes, back in England at Stoke by Nayland, and Spain at the end of October.

She will be looking to consistently challenge in these events in order to gain further ranking points in a bold bid to break into the elite Ladies European Tour.

Can you Sponsor Sophie?

◆ IMPRESSING: Sophie Keech

SOPHIE is currently balancing a daytime job with much time spent away on the European Golf Circuit. All the money she is earning is going towards her golf, an extremely costly experience.

With the undoubted progress Sophie is making, any individual or business in the local area who would be able to sponsor Sophie, however big or small, would be very much appreciated.

Now professional, Sophie can advertise any company logo on her golf equipment or clothing.

Bridport Rugby

Walters adds Welsh steel

TWO strong performances were a feature for Bridport Rugby Club in last week's comprehensive win over Salisbury 3rds came from Mitch Waters and Rory Greening.

Waters, who is 24 and from Cwmbrian in South Wales, joined Bridport this season as a new member. He is working as a Civil Engineer in Dorchester and, because of his friendship with the club's new Head Coach, Wes Lewis, opted to play at Bridport.

Waters has been playing rugby since the age of seven and his last clubs were Caerlon and Newbridge, who play in League 1 and the Welsh Championship.

The forward can play in both the second and back rows and his playing experience from the Welsh League is bringing an added dimension to Bridport's scrum.

Greening is returning to the first team after a short spell at Dorchester.

He is the son of Head Groundsman, Clive Greening, and his strength and power playing at outside centre are a welcome addition to the Bridport back division.

Both players are looking forward to making important contributions to Bridport's forthcoming Dorset & Wilt Division Two (South) League campaign.

As always, new players are always welcome to attend training every Thursday at 7pm at the club.

Bridport's next home game is against Puddletown October 22nd.

Trio in top 10
 at Lymington

THE strong wind and famous Lyme Regis seas, breaking crests picked out in the bright sun, saw excellent sailing conditions on Sunday.

With regular sailors away at national championships, training and open meetings, only five boats set out and only two finished the race.

Ray Waspe in a Laser Radial won from Merlin helm Dom Bownes and crew Jim.

Meanwhile, at Lymington, Simon Heusen, Dave Guthrie and Hugh Duncan finished first, fourth and eighth overall respectively at the K1 National Championships.

The club continues racing until the end of October, with a winter series to follow.

Cruisers members are preparing to lift out from October 10th for winter storage.

 conditions are suitable.

Bees news

WITH STUART BROOM

Hunter hat trick
seals Bees' victory

Bridport 5 Cranborne 2

Dorset Premier League
 AJOSH Hunter hat trick was the highlight of this Dorset Premier League
 game that saw Bridport Reserves overcome
 Cranborne.

The visitors, who finished bottom last year and are once again filling the same spot, are a plucky outfit, and they showed the same qualities as last season
 where they turned up with ten players rather than cancel.

Bridport were smarting from a defeat at the hands of Swanage Town & Herston the previous week, and made a good start culminating in the visiting keeper having to make a smart save to deny Hunter inside the first couple of minutes.

However, Cranes
 striker Sam Wrixton fired home hard and low from 20 yards to give them the lead.
 The Bees didn't panic and started to create a few chances but these were squandered to the frustration of manager
 Shaun Annetts, before
 Hunter equalised.

"I was frustrated that we hadn't capitalised
 on our opportunities,
 but at the same time
 was pleased as in recent weeks we haven't created any chances at all."

The Bees boss was also annoyed that Bridport had wasted several corners by placing them too near the tall Swans' keeper who dominated the situation, but finally his players got the message and when he didn't claim one that fell in the six-yard box, left back Nathan Storey was on hand to smash the ball home with his weaker right foot for his first goal for the club.

The goal took the wind out of Cranborne's sails and Bridport quickly added three more with Hunter completing his hat-trick,
 and sub Owen Ward
 with Hunter this time the creator.

However, conceding a second sloppy goal towards the end took some of the shine off
 Bridport's victory.

Annetts was pleased with Hunter's performance, and his hat trick, but said: "Conceding
 the second was disappointing, but generally speaking it was a better performance."

"But we weren't perfect by any stretch of the imagination, we clearly need to defend better."

He also had praise for Cranborne: "They have some decent players and showed a lot of spirit."

Glovers finally find the target

Yeovil Town 4 Cheltenham Town 2
SkyBet League Two - att; 3,448

By Stuart Broom

YEOVIL Town, after two abject home performances that had seen the lowest Football League attendance in the club's history, finally gave Glovers fans something to cheer about by scoring four goals in their defeat of Gary Johnson's Cheltenham Town.

The result was a relief for everyone, and following their 1-0 victory at Leyton Orient last week, the victory saw them climb to 19th Place in League 2 with 10 points.

Although Otis Khan was named Man-of-the-Match, there were good performances all over the field, something not seen since the opening day 2-0 victory over Notts County.

Khan was on hand to snap up a rebound from an acute angle after just six minutes when on-loan keeper Russell
 Griffiths could only parry Tom Eaves' right wing cross.

It was 2-0 on the quarter hour when Griffiths did well to tip Eaves' dipping shot over the crossbar, but from the resulting Khan corner, captain Darren Ward lost his marker to glance home an exquisite header.

Such was Yeovil's superiority that Johnson, who is known to take calculated, and what appear sometime ambitious gambles, made a double substitution after half an hour and moved to a 4-4-2 formation.

This appeared to have the right result as the Robins started to exert pressure on the Glovers defence, and they pulled one back four minutes before the break when captain Aaron Downes, who was immense in the heart of the visitors' defence, powerfully headed home Jack Munns corner at the far post.

The home fans held their breath as half time approached hoping that the Glovers could maintain their lead until the break, but they did better than that by restoring their two-goal cushion in added time.

Khan cut in from the right and out-foxed two defenders before firing in a curling shot that Griffiths could only beat away, only for the ball to fall to Matt Dolan whose diving header from the edge of the box, fizzed back past the keeper high into the corner.

Eaves, another who really impressed on the day, almost extended the lead three minutes after the interval but his snap header from Khan's whipped cross just went wide of the upright.

Cheltenham were then given a chance of getting back into it when Eaves appeared to hold back Harry Pell almost on the line, and although Arthur Krysiac parried Danny Wright's spot kick the ball was fed back in for Billy Waters to easily convert.

Whilst the game ebbed and flowed,
 there was little goalmouth action at either end, although Griffiths made a superb point-blank save from sub Alex Lawless' header.

But in added time Eaves outpaced Downes on the right before cutting in along the byline. He chose to ignore Khan positioned at the far post and out-foxed Griffiths and a defender before running the ball home off the inside of the far post to cap an excellent display.

The puzzle is why Yeovil can put on a display like this after two appalling performances against poorer sides in Blackpool and Harlepool?

They needed to keep the run going by beating bottom side Cambridge United last night (Tuesday) to really get back amongst the pack.

Ref watch: I was berated by a reader last week who thought I was too harsh on the performance of Charles Breaks-pear who was in charge of the Hartlepool match two weeks ago.

My comments are of course only my opinion, and I do realise how difficult it must be to have eyes all over the pitch, and I appreciate that I am privileged to be able to make such remarks.

We had a fruitful conversation, and I hope that my assessment of GRAHAM SALISBURY this week does not upset too many people, however if the comments and dissent amongst the crowd are anything to go by, they will agree that hopefully he has had better days.

A comment from Geoff Twentyman on Radio Bristol on the way home summed it up perfectly when he read a text from one caller who complained about the man in the middle - he said he had heard of "home refs, but not away ones".

One thing I can confirm is that his penalty decision against Yeovil appeared harsh from where we were sat, but in fact Television replays confirm was quite correct.

Indoor Bowls

Arsenal fan helps Gunners to title

THE Gunners have won their season-long battle with Canaries to be named champions of the Bridport & West Dorset Club's Morning Bowls League after beating the Glovers 11-8 in their final match on shot difference.

Going into an exciting climax last week, Bernard Waterman, Nova Varney, Charles Clarke, Martin Wilton & Brian Baker's Gunners held a 20 shot difference over Sandra and Mel Hargett, Sylvia and Mike Fletcher & David Jenkin's high flying Canaries.

In a game of just 12 ends it seemed improbable, but leading 11-2 after six ends it seemed in the balance, but they couldn't quite make it, and the final result of 18-5 left them seven shots short.

However, it was a great result for Waterman, a lifelong Arsenal supporter who had a stroke several years ago, and only has the use of one arm.

Tony Harrison, Reg Dodd, Peter Hunt and Pat & Martin Water's Red Devils finished third; a great effort considering the Water's only took up the game a month before the season started.

In the Evening League, Pete Cowburn, Norman Eccles, Steve Glover, Keith Jenkins, Eric White & Wilton's Pugilists delivered the knockout blow as they beat Hurdlers 18-9 to take the Evening League title.

Jackie White, Val Dodd, Erica Sarson, Hugh Rees, Keith Peraus & Barry Mapson's Divers lost, but still picked up the silver medals after the Hurdlers lost their last two matches.

Lyn and Peter Sandall, Gordon Lee, Bob Hill & Andy Marsh's Cyclists won their last two fixtures to take the Bronze medal spot.

Fricker: Time for change

Bridport FC 3rds

Chipping Sodbury 5 Bridport 0
Toolstation Premier - att; 115

AFTER a poor performance on Saturday Bridport manager Adam Fricker has decided that, with the team placed precariously near the bottom of The Toolstation Western League Premier Division, it is time to make changes.

The former Chard Town boss has persevered with his squad made up mainly of former Robins' players, and has been patient as the players have bedded in, but after the 5-0 thrashing he has decided it is time to look at bringing new players in to try and turn results around.

Although the Bees were without Mark Salter, Tom Blair and Andy Martin, he has declared that "changes need to be made".

Reflecting on Saturday's debacle he said: "We were poor all across the pitch, I don't think anyone can be happy with their performance."

"The players out there weren't good enough to match them."

He added: "Changes need to be made. We need to start picking up points otherwise it is going to be a hard long season."

With no game for two weeks Fricker is hopeful that Martin may be fit to return along with the two others, but also hopes to include some new faces.

"We've got a few irons in the fire, and if we are going to do it, we want to do it now ready for the next game."

Bridport were never in the game at The Ridings and fell behind after 15 minutes when Jack Parker tapped-in at the far post.

Two minutes later Sam Jenkins rounded Jason Hutchings, before Joe Guest made it 3-0 with a thunderous 25-yard shot before the break.

Jenkins added his second before the hour before Dave Sims added a fifth.

Bridport failed to work the home keeper all game.

Ed Butcher did get down the wing a couple of times and Gary Bulman had a couple of chances but nothing of any significance.

As reported last week, Willand Rovers gave seven-days notice of approach for Butcher, but following a meeting with their league rivals management last week, he has decided to stay at St Mary's.

Fricker was delighted by the news saying: "We didn't want to lose him and are glad he has decided to stay."
